The classic Herringbone design can be traced back to the Romans who used the design in the construction of roads to add strength. The pattern became known as "Herring - Bone" as it resembles the outline of a fish skeleton. The Renaissance periods between the 14th and 17th centuries saw the design being used in many aspects of architectural design including flooring. Traditional real wood Herringbone has long been a desirable choice to add a touch of class to any room or entrance hallway. Laminate manufacturing expertise has now been developed to bring you a high quality affordable alternative.

Herringbone Installation: Floating Valinge Click System

Note: Floors must be perfectly level before installing laminate Herringbone. Any variation in floor levels must be corrected prior to installation. Herringbone is supplied in equal quantities of packs of left and right pieces - packs "A" and "B".

Our laminate herringbone has an improved moisture guard coreboard which gives enhanced swelling performance over standard laminates. Not suitable for outdoor use or rooms with permanently high moisture, e.g. shower cubicles, wet rooms, saunas and rooms with floor drains.
